

East Kentucky Correspondence News You Get Nowhere Else

No correspondence published unless signed in full by the writer. The name is not for publication, but as an evidence of good faith. Write plainly.

JACKSON COUNTY Sand Springs

Sand Springs, Oct. 12.—Farmers are busy digging their potatoes, which are very fine.—Junior Agricultural Club was organized with James Harrison as president and Professor G. C. Johnson, secretary. It will be addressed by Senator W. H. Clark, Thursday night at 7:00 p. m.—N. J. Coyle, who has been sick for two months, is no better.—Johnnie Mays, the genial superintendent for the Turkey Foot Lumber Co., visited the meeting of the Agricultural Club, Thursday night.—Prof. G. C. Johnson visited friends and relatives at Moore's Creek, Saturday and Sunday.—An epidemic of flu and typhoid are in and around Foxtown. There are twenty-five cases, with seven deaths. Looks as if the health officers would turn their attention to this part.—Miss Ethel and Sylvia Hinsley, of Drip Rock, were visiting our school, Friday.—Miss Gracie Blanton visited her cousins, Miss Della and Henry Blanton, at Spice Lick, Sunday.—Wm. Gay has bought the Cox property and is now selling goods at that place.—T. G. Gay, merchant, has bought his winter goods.—Two of Deputy Sheriff McFarland's children died with flux last week.—Joseph Lorenze, who has been interested in the oil development of Jackson county, went to his home in Pennsylvania last week.—Every citizen farmer in Jackson county ought to subscribe for The Citizen, as we have no paper published in the county and it will give all the news worth while.

Foxtown

Foxtown, Oct. 16.—The farmers are about done saving fodder.—Flux is raging. One of J. M. Harrison's children died of the disease last week. One of Tom Jones', one of Tom McQueen's, one of L. D. Russell's children have also died, besides several others.—N. J. Coyle had a sale last Thursday and sold one-half interest in steam mill, some stock and some merchandise. Mr. Coyle is in bad health.—Wm. Gay bought the T. P. Cox's farm. Mr. Cox has moved to C. M. Russell's farm near Pond schoolhouse.—Charlie Rose is moving to Foxtown to house known as Wes Steele place, now owned by Mr. Elihu Lakes.—D. B. Moore, who has been away at work, returned home yesterday.—Mrs. Rosa B. Moore was a visitor at J. C. McKinney's one day last week.—Foxtown school is progressing nicely, with Mrs. Ada Mays as teacher.—Jake McKinney had a cane stripping last Monday and got a fine lot of work done.—Geo. McQueen, Ed Richardson and W. J. Richardson are working for Steam Shovel Co. and boarding at Rachel McKinney's.—Able Turner and G. W. McKinney went to J. W. Marcum's last week on business.—Rev. W. R. Lakes filled his regular appointment at Indian House last Sunday. There was a large crowd present.—The following weddings have occurred recently: Alex Blanton to Miss Myrtle Isaacs; Nathan Isaacs to Miss Bell Isaacs; M. M. Atkins to Miss Louisa Standifer; E. P. Isaacs to Miss Lucy Baker.

Parrot

Parrot, Oct. 17.—Most of the people of this part are making sorghum, digging potatoes and storing them during this fine weather.—The baby of John Cunagin is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Moore, on October 4th, a baby, named Odie; also a boy to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Holt, October 12th, named Edward, and one to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Price, October 15th, named Earl.—Leandrew Gabbard has moved to Altamont to work this winter.—Oral, the little son of Dave Gabbard, has been very sick with pneumonia, but is better.—Phee Hillard and family visited Bert Summers on Laurel Fork, today.—Miss Rena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cornelius, was married on last Saturday evening to Mr. Guy Gaines, both of Parrot. Clark Cunagin officiated; also Miss Lillie Nichols to Mr. Vester Callihan, of Parrot, by same minister.—Our school is doing good work with Miss Lizzie Hurley as teacher.—Death came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Callihan last week and took their little babe. It was about six months old. Its stay was short, but we can feel how great is their loss and heaven's gain. Its body was interred in the cemetery near Ove Tussey's.

McKee

McKee, Oct. 17.—Last Sunday was rally day for our Sunday-school. More than 100 were present. Previous average was about seventy-five. The Consistory of the Reformed Church met last Tuesday evening at the Parsonage to hear confessions of faith and consider requests of Lola Tussey and Gertrude Fowler for admission into the church. They were taken into the church and were baptized in the Turner Bottom immediately after Sunday-school.—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Isaacs, a boy. The infant and mother are doing well.—Dr. J. E. Anderson sold his property to J. H. Hays and moved to Kingston, Madison county.—We are informed that J. M. Hignite purchased the Howard property on Water street and will soon move in and open up a large stock of merchandise.—L. C. Little, who had been living in the Howard property, moved last Saturday to the Dr. J. D. Hays property.—Wm. Cunagin made a business trip to Red Lick, in Estill county, last Friday.—A recruiting officer for the U. S. Army has been in town for a few days, but so far has not enlisted any of the boys.—Miss Susie Watson, teacher of the public school, visited home folks at Bond from Friday evening till Sunday evening.—Our community club meets regularly once each month. At the last meeting plans were made for completing the fence around the public school lot. In accordance with an order made last fall, the County Board of Education will pay for the fence and the patrons and friends of the school will furnish the posts and build it. Miss Watson is a good teacher, and takes an active interest in community improvement.—H. F. Minter will attend the Grand Lodge F. & A. M. at Louisville this week and will probably be at the inauguration of President Hutchins of Berea College, on Friday.—The October pay for teachers has not been received from the State Treasurer yet.

Clover Bottom

Clover Bottom, Oct. 19.—These weeks are very busy ones for the people of Clover Bottom. Everyone is cutting corn, digging potatoes, making molasses or doing something of the kind on the farm.—Miss Laura Smith, Nelson Hurst, Denes Abrams, and Thos. Smith went to Big Hill, Sunday, where some students of Berea College joined them, and after hunting nuts, going thru the caves, and having a big dinner together, they returned to Clover Bottom, telling of the big times they had enjoyed together during the day.—There will be a community meeting at the schoolhouse on Wednesday night. We hope to have a large crowd out; some music and also some interesting talks from other neighborhoods. Everybody come out and help us!—The Junior Agricultural Club or "Corner Oak" Club is doing some good work. Every member is trying to make this the most successful year they have had yet. They are planning for a marshmallow toast soon, and also will furnish an interesting program at that time.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller, from Columbus, Ohio, are visiting their parents.—William Hurst is ill at this writing. We hope he will get well, soon.

Moore's Creek

Moore's Creek, Oct. 19.—We are having beautiful fall weather.—Most everyone is done saving fodder.—Sherman Cunagin is hauling ties.

Mrs. Minnie Truitt, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Lettie Cunagin, for the past week, has returned to her home in Illinois.—Jesse Moore attended singing at Green Mount, Sunday.—The box supper at Moore's Creek schoolhouse went off splendidly and a nice sum of money was raised.—Church was held at Lizard Flat, Sunday, and a large crowd was present.—Mr. Dyche has moved to his new home at Bowling, Ky., and is selling quite a lot of goods.—Maxie Wilson is sick with a sore throat this week.—Misses Mamie and Nannie Jody have returned to Annville school, after a week's visit with their parents.—Miss Frances Moore was the guest of Misses Katharine and Rhoda McDaniel, Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. Levi Purkey and Mrs. Henry Dyche made a trip to London, Monday, last.—Misses Kathaleen and Laura Little went hickory nut hunting, Sunday, and found a lot of hickory nuts.—Lester Simpson is hauling lumber from Bond, Ky.—Richard Garrett, who has been sick for a few days, is better.—Lile school is having splendid attendance, but the house is so bad, we fear we cannot hold the attendance in bad weather.—There have been several cases of diphtheria and scarlet fever.

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY Goochland

Goochland, Oct. 18.—The pleasant, dry weather is drying out the corn.—The church members and citizens of Goochland have decided to repair the Sycamore church this fall or build a new one, which will add to the betterment of the community. The Sunday-school is progressing nicely.—John Barrett and Marion Brewer passed thru Goochland yesterday en route to Cooksburg.—Robert Tankersley passed thru here today on his way to Esom Johnson's to make sorghum.—A. P. Gabbard expects to get done making sorghum and sowing rye this week, so he can start out on a mountain drumming trip, but he will probably not start till after the election.—Dillard Allen has moved back to Illinois.—Perry White has gotten his son's insurance, who was killed in France.—Ellen Dooley has gone to near Wildie to teach school this fall.—A. P. Gabbard motored to Mt. Vernon to a Republican speaking, which he enjoyed very much. He stayed over night with John Mink.—Joseph Martin visited Sand Gap one day last week.

Disputanta

Disputanta, Oct. 18.—There is a revival meeting being held at Clear Creek church this week, with Revs. H. L. Ponder and Jas. Harding as preachers. Everybody is invited to attend.—Misses Mae and Hazel Miller and brother, Milton, of Crooked Creek, are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Miller, this week.—Mrs. Tine Williams is making an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Payne.—Miss Nannie and Lula Kirby, now students at Berea College, were visiting relatives in this vicinity, Saturday night and Sunday, and attended church.—Miss Etta Smith was visiting relatives here last week.—The people of this vicinity are about done saving fodder, but are into the molasses making to the limit.—Miss Verdie Shearer visited home folks Sunday.—Miss Angie Payne entertained quite a number of friends and relatives Sunday afternoon.—School is progressing nicely at Davis Branch with very good attendance.—Miss Mary Jones was the guest of Mrs. R. T. Abney, Sunday afternoon.—We would like to hear the Bond news.—Hurrah for The Citizen.

Conway

Conway, Oct. 19.—Rev. J. W. Anderson filled his regular appointment at Conway Sunday with very large attendance. Many people from other places came to hear him.—B. H. Schumaker and family visited in Berea, Sunday.—Mr. and Mrs. Laura Staub, of Covington, are visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor.—Born to Mrs. John Rice, a girl last Thursday. Baby is doing fine.—Mrs. Mary Bailey and children visited at Charles Maggard's Sunday.—J. M. Bailey is in Jackson county this week on business. He is expected home Thursday.—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lambert attended the wedding of her sister, Miss Jennie Wheeler, of Stanford.—Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wynn, of Conway, attended the holiness meeting on Brindle Ridge, Sunday; also Willie Saylor attended the meeting.—Mrs. Sallie Beldon and daughter, Geneva, attended the meeting on Brindle Ridge, Sunday.—Mr. Kidd, of Conway, took a car of people to Danville last Thursday to hear Harding speak.

GARRARD COUNTY White Lick

White Lick, Oct. 18.—Miss Grace Baker of Los Angeles, Cal., visited her cousin, Miss Parrie Clark, last

Tuesday night.—Mrs. Sam Davis gave a social last Wednesday evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Lorraine's birthday. Cake and ice cream were served and everybody present had a fine time.—Several from her attended the speaking by King Swope at Cartersville last Wednesday afternoon.—Rev. Hudspeth filled his regular appointment at Level Green Sunday afternoon and evening.—Mrs. C. C. Hounshell visited her grandmother, Mrs. Foley, at Hackley, Wednesday and Thursday.—J. B. Creech visited his daughter, Mrs. Andy Matlock and family at Nina, Sunday.—Misses Della and Oma Creech, of Dethridge, Ind., visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Creech, and other relatives here last week.—Mrs. Addie Davis and Miss Lizzie Elam visited Mrs. Sam Davis last Wednesday night.—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Matlock and children and Misses Della and Oma Creech spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Creech and family last Friday.—Mrs. Enoch Creech and Mrs. Viola Pruitt visited Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Conn, Friday night and Saturday.—Misses Della and Oma Creech visited Misses Stella and Beulah West last Saturday and Sunday week.

ESTILL COUNTY Locust Branch

Locust Branch, Oct. 18.—The people are busy cutting corn.—Mr. and Mrs. James Bicknell were the guests of their son, Early Bicknell, Saturday night and Sunday.—Burnam French, son of Jeff French, is still on the sick list and is not much better.—Beahem Thomas gave the young folks a party Saturday night.—Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bicknell made a visit to Berea, Sunday, to see their daughter.—Sunday-school is still in progress at this place. There was meeting at Beach Grove, Sunday afternoon. It was conducted by Rev. Overt Richardson.—Miss Anna Johnson, of Knob Lick, made a visit to her home at Brassfield, Friday, and returned Sunday.—Albert Gentry and brother visited their brother, Jeff Gentry, last week and returned to their home in Indianapolis, Saturday.

CLAY COUNTY Vine

Vine, Oct. 14.—Everybody is thru cutting and housing tobacco, and coal hauling and molasses making are all the go.—Roy Clark, of Madison county, has been through here buying hags.—Next Saturday and Sunday is our regular church days at Mt. Olive.—Isaac Howard is home again from Hamilton.—Mrs. Rosa Pennington made a business trip to Stringtown last Saturday.—Jack Callahan, of Richmond, is visiting here this week. He has bought a farm on Taulden and expects to move to it soon.—Miss Adelia Murray, teacher of Falling Timber school, spent from Friday until Monday with home folks at Fogertown.—Mr. and Mrs. Levi Pennington, Jr., have purchased a new Kimball organ.—Julia Pennington and Miss Mollie Ponder were dinner guests of Mrs. M. L. Ferguson, Monday.—Miss Mattie Parker, of lower Burning Springs, passed through here Sunday on her way to Maulden and expects to move to it McGeorge.—Mrs. Rebeckie Rice is still on the puny list.

MADISON COUNTY Silver Creek

Silver Creek, Oct. 18.—Rev. Louis VanWinkle filled his regular appointment here Saturday and Sunday.—The community and school was much saddened by the death of Willard Terrill, which occurred October 11th. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved parents and friends.—Many are planning to attend the corn show and fair at the Rural Training School on Scaffold Cane pike.—There has been a Sunday-school organized at this place and all seem to be interested.—Success to The Citizen and its many readers.

Walnut Meadow

Walnut Meadow, Oct. 18.—Miss Edyth Tutt had a pie supper at her schoolhouse Saturday night. The proceeds amounted to nearly $35.—Charles Moore is building an addition to his house.—G. B. Angle built and filled a silo last week.—Misses Mary Moore and Lula Fortune, who are teaching, spent the week-end with home folks.—Golda Martin and Minta McQueen spent Thursday night with Maud Pearl Vaughn. Golda and Minta are Normal students of Berea College.—Mrs. T. F. Guinn and grandson, Clyde, of Dayton, Ohio, were visiting over Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Ogg.—Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Anderson and daughter, of Richmond, were with home folks here, Sunday.—We are having a nice, dry, dusty, warm October.—Corn is being put in the shock as fast as possible, owing to the dry, windy weather.—Some farmers cut corn by lantern light.—Wheat sowing, cane cutting, hog feeding, and apple gathering are the jobs now.—Hurrah for The Citizen for keeping neutral on politics. When we all know how each man (and woman too) would like to say a few good words for the man of our choice.

Bark Road

Bark Road, Oct. 19.—Farmers are taking advantage of the pretty weather, cutting their corn.—Rain is needed very badly.—A large crowd of chestnut hunters were on the Bark Road Sunday afternoon. Chestnuts are selling for 80 cents per gallon.—Mrs. Nealia Chrisman spent the day with her sister, Mrs. Susie Kindred, last Tuesday.—Mrs. Susie Kindred is on the sick list this week.

Blue Lick

Blue Lick, Oct. 19.—Fruit drying was never known to be conducted on so large a scale.—This community was previously shocked last week by the sudden death of Willard Terrill, aged fifteen, a bright, capable youth, loved by everyone who knew him. After an operation for appendicitis at Robinson Hospital, he never rallied. His funeral, preached by Brother Hudspeth, of Berea, at his grandfather, Rev. Johnson's, residence, with interment in Berea cemetery, was attended by a host of sympathizing friends and relatives.—Mrs. Belle Terrill is still in a serious condition, with heart disease, at her home.—Charles Carter, while motoring on Dixie Highway, Saturday night, near Kingston, collided with a large truck. Both cars were badly damaged, but their inmates escaped serious injuries.—John Major Johnson is doing a lively business this week with his auto, transporting foxhounds and their dogs to an from College Hill to the annual hunt.—"Gen. Haig", the champion fox hound of this vicinity, owned by T. J. Flannery, sustained a serious injury, which prevented his entrance into the chase as previously scheduled, much to the disappointment of enthusiastic admirers.—Mrs. Annie Golt, of Elizabethton, Tenn., will attend the Inauguration at Berea and make a protracted visit with her sister, Mrs. L. K. Flannery, of Blue Lick.

Kingston

Kingston, Oct. 18.—Mrs. Vernon Daniels was called to see her mother, Mrs. Rachel Golden, who is very sick at her home on Walnut Meadow pike. (Continued on Page 5)

12 Baby Farms 12

376 acres of the best land lying within 1 1/4 miles of Berea will be divided into small farms to suit the purchaser. This land lies just east of Berea with two good pike roads, one through the middle, the other along the entire side of same. Within walking distance of Berea College, and joins a public school and Silver Creek church, and is known as the

Mitchell Farm

Every tract is well watered, most of same lying on the banks of Silver Creek. This is not only good land, but is considered the best improved farm in Southern Madison, having the best fencing possible, five large, new stock and tobacco barns and every convenience known for this section.

150 ACRES

Of this land is of the finest and most fertile producing creek bottom land. 75 acres in timber worth at smallest estimate $100 per acre for cross ties alone. Other salable timber in large quantity. The balance of the farm is in grass and under cultivation, and every tract has a liberal pike frontage.

THE HOME

On this farm is a spacious 8-room frame house, two splendid barns, stock scales and club-room, a fine orchard and best of water. All of these wonderful offerings at public sale on the premises on Wednesday, November 10, 1920

AT 10:00 O'CLOCK A. M.

We will also sell at the same time about 1000 bushels of corn and 20 tons of hay. Conveyances will be supplied for many patrons and aside from a big sale a good time with a big crowd. Mr. Gott has agreed to take his fine lunch wagon to this sale to take care of all inside information.

MEET US THERE---EVERYBODY IS COMING

Possession Given January 1, 1921, and the Liberal Terms Made Known on Day of Sale.

Scruggs, Welch & Gay

REAL ESTATE AGENTS

Col. Jesse Cobb, Auctioneer

Berea, Kentucky

Potts' GOLD DUST Flour

is made of best wheat and by most improved methods

BEST BY TEST

For Sale By All Grocers

Phone 156-3

R. L. POTTS & SON Whites Station, Ky.